The Report of the Chief Electoral Officer On The 1988 General Enumeration

Introduction

In accordance with the provisions of Section 14 of the Election Act, a Provincial General Enumeration was conducted in the period September 15 through September 30, 1988. The period of Revisions to the Lists of Electors was October 13 through October 15, 1988. The last General Enumeration was conducted in 1985 and those Lists of Electors were amended during the course of the General Election of May 1986. This 1988 Enumeration will now replace the Lists of Electors compiled at that Election.

Conduct of the Enumeration

During 1987/88, a major review of all electoral maps was undertaken by the Returning Officers and polling sub-division boundaries and boundary descriptions were amended as necessary to ensure that the most up-to-date data was available. Revised maps were then produced on which to base the enumeration process. During this period, Returning Officers considered their options in regard to the selection of potential polling places with particular attention to places wherein level access could be assured for the physically handicapped and the elderly.

A total of 7,593 enumerators were employed in the 1988 General Enumeration, which commenced on Thursday, September 15th; the door-to-door visits to residents were generally completed on Friday, September 30, 1988. It was necessary to extend the enumeration period for eleven electoral divisions due to enumerators failing to meet their responsibilities, sickness, accidents and other staffing circumstances.

The total number of electors enumerated in each electoral division is presented at Appendix I of this Report (Page 5). These totals include both those electors enumerated during door-to-door visits and those electors added during the Revision Period.

The names and postal addresses of each of the eighty-three Returning Officers who conducted this General Enumeration, are recorded at Appendix II (Pages 6 and 7).

Enumeration Training Seminars

In November 1987, all Returning Officers attended Mapping Training Seminars, in either Edmonton or Calgary, during which time the electoral mapping process was reviewed in detail and following which maps were amended as outlined in the foregoing section.

During March 1988, most Returning Officers attended an Enumeration Training Seminar in either Edmonton or Calgary during which time the enumeration process was reviewed in detail and the duties and responsibilities of the Returning Officers were emphasized. All enumerators received training from their Returning Officer prior to commencement of the 1988 General Enumeration.

A flip chart briefing, containing pertinent information to be used as a training aid, together with additional data, were provided to each Returning Officer. These training aids and updated copies of "The Returning Officers' Handbook" and of "A Guide for Enumerators" helped to standardize enumeration procedures throughout the Province.

Publicity

On August 12, 1988, a news release announcing the dates of the enumeration, together with elector eligibility criteria and the dates for the revision period was provided to 230 media outlets throughout the Province.

Supplemental information included in this news release addressed the fact that the announcement of a Federal General Election during the Fall of 1988, would require that a Federal Enumeration also take place. This possibility generated considerable interest among media personnel which resulted in good media coverage, both before and after the Federal General Election was called. There are significant differences between the Provincial and Federal jurisdictions in regard to the enumeration process, as follows:

	Provincial Criteria	Federal Criteria
General
Respresentation:	83 Electoral Divisions	26 Electoral Districts
Polling Sub-divisions:	Up to 450 Electors	Up to 350 Electors
List of Electors - Elegibility
Relative Date:	October 1, 1988 (Standard Date)	November 21, 1988 (Polling Day)
Age:	Full age - 18 years	Full age - 18 years
Citizenship:	Canadian	Canadian
Ordinary Residency:	Alberta resident for at least the immediately preceeding six months	Alberta resident on the date enumerated

Information concerning Enumeration 1988 was published in all daily newspapers throughout the Province on September 9th and September 12th and in selected weekly newspapers within each electoral division, once during the week of September 5th and again during the week of September 12th. Information related to the Revision Period was published in all daily newspapers on October 5th, 1988 and in selected weekly newspapers the first week of October, as required by Section 29 of the Election Act.

Overview of the Results (Appendix I)

The following information has been highlighted for general interest purposes:

a. there are 1,471,826 names recorded in the 1988 List of Electors, in comparison to the 1,428,727 persons recorded at the 1985 General Enumeration. The additional 43,099 names represent a 3.02 % increase over the period;

b. there were 922,453 persons enumerated in the 42 urban electoral divisions, compared to 879,720 persons so enumerated during the 1985 General Enumeration;

c. there were 549,373 persons enumerated in the 41 rural electoral divisions, compared to 549,007 persons so enumerated during the 1985 General Enumeration;

d. electoral divisions having a voter population of over 25,000 are:

Edmonton-Whitemud	29,803,
Calgary-Fish Creek	29,725,
Calgary-North West	28,663,
Calgary-McCall	28,436,
Medicine Hat	28,266,
Calgary-Shaw	26,795,
Calgary-McKnight	25,400,	and
Edmonton-Jasper Place	25,362;

e. electoral divisions having a voter population of under 10,000 are:

Cardston	7,741,
Pincher Creek-Crowsnest	8,514,
Cypress-Redcliff	8,676,
Little Bow	8,923,
Chinook	8,984,	and
St. Paul	9,941;

f. there is an average of 21,963 electors in the 42 urban electoral divisions; and

g. there is an average of 13,399 electors in the 41 rural electoral divisions.

Maps and Lists of Electors

Maps of each electoral division showing sequentially numbered polling subdivisions, once reviewed and amended by the Returning Officers, were prepared by the Alberta Bureau of Surveying and Mapping. Lists of Electors were compiled in accordance with Section 26 of the Election Act. The Lists of Electors for each polling subdivision within an electoral division, includes a cover page, a boundary description and a map of the polling subdivision. Copies of the Maps and the Lists were distributed to registered political parties according to their requests, as required by Section 34 of the Election Act.

Financial Analysis (Appendices III and IV)

The cost to conduct the 1988 General Enumeration, was $3,317,041., with an average cost per name of $2.25. A Cost Summary, by Electoral Division, is presented at Appendix III (Pages 8 and 9) and an Overview of all costs is presented at Appendix IV (Page 10).

An analysis of the cost summary of the 1988 General Enumeration indicates:

a. the cost of $3,317,041., to conduct the 1988 General Enumeration, was 5.9% higher than the cost incurred for the 1985 General Enumeration. This increase resulted from an increase in the number of electors and the resultant increase in the numbers of polling subdivisions, enumerators required and associated advertising;

b. in the 42 urban electoral divisions, in which 922,453 names were recorded on the List of Electors, the total cost was $1,994,196.; with an average cost per name of $2.16. The highest cost per name was $2.47, recorded for the electoral division of Edmonton-Centre; and the lowest cost per name was $1.98, recorded in the electoral divisions of Calgary-Buffalo and Calgary-Shaw;

c. in the 41 rural electoral divisions, in which 549,373 names were recorded on the Lists of Electors, the total cost was $1,021,093.; with an average cost per name of $1.86. The highest cost per name was $2.85, recorded for the electoral division of Chinook; and the lowest cost per name was $1.38, recorded in the electoral division of Stony Plain;

d. the eighty-three Returning Officers were paid fees and expenses amounting to $548,425., which represents approximately 16.5% of the enumeration cost. Fees and travel costs amounting to $2,466,864., were paid to 7,593 enumerators which represents approximately 74.4% of the enumeration cost. The remaining 9.1% represents costs incurred by the Office of the Chief Electoral Officer;

e. enumerations are highly labour intensive. Personnel costs represent 81.2% of the total enumeration expenses; and

f. in excess of 7,700 individual fees and expense claims were received, verified and processed for payment through the Provincial Treasury, in a four week period.

Conclusion

Overall, the 1988 General Enumeration was efficiently conducted by the 7,593 enumerators employed throughout the eighty-three electoral divisions.

The excellent support provided by the media and the advertising in newspapers coordinated by this Office resulted in an informed electorate and very few problems during this enumeration.

The success of the 1988 General Enumeration was largely due to the effective management displayed by the eighty-three Returning Officers. I wish to record my sincere appreciation for their dedication and the professional manner in which they carried out their duties.
